

PROBLEMS OF PINE TREES

When planting pines, especially in large plantings, pine wilt disease should be given top priority. The Scots, Red, and Austrian pines are most prone to this problem.

Below is a general summary of the most common problems occurring to most species of pine tree.

NEEDLES FALL OFF TREE
IN LARGE NUMBERS

WHITE PINE NEEDLES
DIE IN THE SPRING

NEEDLES FLECKED; RED-BROWN

STICKY BUD TIPS; NEEDLES TURN YELLOW

NEEDLES; BRANCHES ENCRUSTED; GROWTH STUNTED

TUNNELS IN BARK

YELLOWISH NEEDLES;

NEEDLES WILT; CANKERS ON TRUNK

DROP PREMATURELY

NEEDLES DISCOLORED;

ROOTS GNAWED

BARK OF TRUNK AND

FOLIAGE EATEN; BARK IS DAMAGED IN FLAT STRIPS

WANT TO KNOW MORE IN DETAILS

READ HERE

www.yardener.com